G. Paul Moore Symposium Chairs: Lena Wedeen & Angela Andersen

- It's over, we did it! Thanks team <3
- Now: Apply for the 2016/17 Co-Chair position :D
- This is a 2-year commitment: must be a Freshman or Sophomore to apply, although we recommend you apply as a Sophomore so you're Chair during your Senior year (you don't want all that as a Junior, trust me)
- Submit Applications to Angela Andersen at angelamandersen@ufl.edu by 11:59pm on Friday, March 25th.
- Applications will be posted on the facebook page after the meeting tonight and sent out an email!
- feel free to ask either of us as many questions as you have about apps via email/facebook!

Applying for Co-Chair

Together, the Chair and Co-Chair put on the longest running, student-run CEU providing program in the United States. Aka this is a huge honor, and a huge time commitment.

As Co-Chair you will:

- Coordinate external affairs for the 2017 Symposium (arrange parking, catering, restaurant reservations, CART services)
- Attend monthly meetings with our faculty advisor, Dr. Griffiths, to brainstorm about ideas and logistics for the Symposium- great way to get to know the department!
- Drive the speakers to/from dinners and the event
- Organize NSSLHA volunteers
- Assist Chair (Angela Andersen)
- Train to lead the 2018 G. Paul Moore Symposium!
- Qualities of Symposium chair include event planning skills, organization, responsible, and will be able to work well with faculty and professionals, parking services, Emerson Hall, etc

Stride Chairs: Sarah Falls & Brittany Schmidt

- Stride Against Silence is this Saturday, woo!! Race sign-in begins at 7:30am and the race begins at 8:30am at the large UF Commuter Lot on Gale Lemerand Dr. behind Hume Hall (by the new physics building)
- If you are a volunteer, check in with Brittany at the event and she will give you volunteer instructions (the time for you to arrive is on the google doc where you signed up)
- Bring some cash as NSSLHA, GNSSLHA, and SAA will be selling items (t-shirts, bumper stickers, etc.)
 - There will also be extra Stride shirts sold for $10 at first come, first serve basis along with extra raffle tickets
- You do not need to send me or Tyler a copy of your receipt from your UF Foundation donation
 - I will receive a list of donors from them, then Brittany and I will mark you off

To get the Stride point, you must:

1. Register to run/walk
2. Volunteer AND donate $10 online (3 spots left on google doc) *this gets you a Stride point AND service point, yay.
 - a. If you do one and not the other, you receive NEITHER point
3. Donate items AND donate $10 online (spots are filled)

 After the meeting, we will continue to collect donated items. Please come talk to me after if you have any questions about getting a Stride point, thanks! :)

Stride Against Silence Co-Chair Position

This is also a TWO YEAR commitment!!

As Co-Chair, you will:

- Assist me (Brittany Schmidt) in developing and orchestrating Stride 2017 (and take over for 2018!)
- Recruit sponsors
- Promote the event through social media
- Recruit and organize a Stride Committee, volunteers, and runners for the event

Apply if you are interested in audiology, cochlear implant patients, being a member of the NSSLHA officer team (but maybe aren't up to running for office!)

Applications will be sent out with the meeting minutes, and are due MARCH 31st! Applications and questions can be sent to me at brschmidt@ufl.edu

Guest Speakers

Please give a warm welcome to our guest speakers
for tonight,

Katie Weir, CCC-SLP and Dr. Melissa Hall, CCC-SLP, Au.D.!
